THE FORREST DIVORCE CASE. Catharine N. Forrest vs. Edwin Forrest-Edwin Ferrest vs. Catharine N. Forrest.

SUPERIOR COURT-BEFORE JUDGE OAKLEY. FIFTEENTH DAY Monday, Jan. 5. Catharine N. Forrestagt. Edwin Forrest, and counter charge-Action for Divorce-Continued.

DIFFICULTY AS TO COURT ROOM. The Circuit Court commencing its term to-day, the Judges of the Supreme Court declined a request of the Judges of this Court to permit them to continue, for this trial, the use of the Circuit Court room, and there was a general removing of chairs, &c., to the General Term room of the Superior Court.

Testimony of Mr. Paster — Mr. Van B. said he would like to ask a few questions, but it was replied the witness has left for Rochester.

Depositions of Dr. Hawks and Laura Hawks, his but, c.—Mr. O'C. offered to read them but it was objected to by Mr. Van B., as the witnesses themselves should be placed upon the stand. It was replied they were ill at the time of the deposition, (31st Decard 1st Jan.) and are still unwell. Mr. Van B. said the depositions were mostly opinions of the witnesses, and he is desirous they should be called, and they are capable of doing so. They were to go to Rochester the day after the deposition. There appeared to have been a defect in the affidavit asking for the deposition not saying from knowledge that the parties were sick, &c., and the depositions were not, for the present, admitted.

I did not know them personally myself. Objected to). Mr. O'C, said he wished to show that Air, F, and Miss C, were in the same state-room that evening—cannot prove it was them by this witness, but another told him who they were. Mr. Van B said, as they had got into a new Court room and a new year, there might be a desire to go over again the whole case; testimony as to information is improper. It is known that Mr. Forrest and Miss Cliften were engaged at theaters abroad at the same time, and journeyed together, and no person knew the fact better than plaintiff herself. Miss Cliften is dead, and there is no possibility of calling her to explain. He contended that plaintiff should be confined to the case. Mr. Forrest labors under difficulty, as many do, on account of the death of a party as to explanation, but it is for the Jury to weigh that as they will remote testimony, but there is a general allegation as to Miss Clifton, and it is proper the Jury should have any proper testimony.

Witness—Believe I was informed who the parties were; it is impressed upon my mind that it was Mr. Wendell: as to the gentleman and lady I noticed nothing neculiar. I observed a lady being shown into a state-room by a servant of the boat, she having baggage with her, she was pointed out to me by a gentleman as to who she was: a few minutes afterward saw Mr. Forrest, who was also pointed out to me the gentleman went into the state-room. (Cross-examination deferred.)

Q.—Do you know Mr. Forrest, the defendant in this suit! A.—Ido: have known him since I lived in Hous-ton-st. I am mistaken I knew him when I lived in Greenwich-st.

In answer to a question from Mr. Van Buren, the Chief Justice said he intended to reopen the case broadly and unlimitedly.

Witness—Mr. Forrest was at my house in Greenwich-st. more than once: I can't remember how long after I arst went there. I could not state the number of times he came. he came alone; he came and engaged a room.

Q.—in what way!

ably be there: I never saw him go in or leave it; I judge about that time, he engaged the room more than once. I do not remember how often he engaged this room, it was not frequent, it was the front room second story, it was furnishd as a sleeping apartment, he didnot say at any time what he wanted the room for. I never saw him in that room. I never saw any other person go in or come out of it while he was in it, he came to engage the room in the day-time; I only saw him in the parlor down stairs; it is the front room. I received nim there and left him there sometimes I went out through the folding doors and sometimes out of the parlor door to the half. Her him atone. I do not remember if the contract for the room was for immediate occupancy, or to come at another time. I never sent any one to meet him in the parlor, he came in the morning, generally when I was about my household duties, and I asked him to excuse me. I can't remember the sum I charged for the use of these rooms. he asked if I had a room, he told me who recommended him, and I gave him a small parlor and a bedroom. I don't know if he occupied the parlor. I don't remember the name of the gentleman who recommended him, he was a brilladelphian: I may have heard him (Forrest) go up to the room, and somtimes leave it. I've heard him coming down stairs, and I think I heard him go up; I never, saw him going up or down. I did not hear anybody else go up. Mr. Forrest was not acquainted with any person living in my house at the time of these visits; I don't remember of going into the room the same day after he had left it. I have four chambers in my house beside the parlors each chamber was provided with a bed, of they could not be chambers in my house and occupy one of those rooms for a part of the day or an evening.

Objected to by Mr. Van. Buren.

The Chief Justice wild he supposed the object was to prove this was a house of assignation, and is so it was competent to mequire into its character, as Mr. Porrest was an occasional visitor at that house.

Witness—Well, there have been.

Q-Were not those chambers generally used for the purpose of a lady and gentleman meeting therein?

A-No: they were used for boarders: generally for persons boarding with me. I had both gentlemen at a ladies: I do a't know their names, they were transient. I mean persons who came from other places, who would stay two or three days, sometimes ionger. I cannot tell the names of any of them, some of the ladies were permanent, stay two or three months at a time, and one or two of them staid lenger. I had on an average three lady boarders; there have been times when I had only one.

Q.—Were the ladies fiving with husbands or alone?

A.—I decline answering. it would be a very difficult matter for me to say if they had husbands or not.

Q.—Was it usual for the ladies to occupy the same chamber at night with one of your transent gentlemen bearders.

A.—No, it was not usual.

Q.—Was it unusual?

A.—I should like to know if these questions are necessary; I appeal to the Court—I meant to say if a lady or gentic man came to me, they occupied my room as man and wife; I have had ladies in this City with me who kept company with gentlemen who I did not know if they were married or not; I mean they occupied the same chamber of a night.

Q.—Did they occupy the same room with different gentlemen?

Q—Did niev occupy the same room with dimerent gentlemen?

A.—I decline answering.

Mr. O'Conor said it would de her no harm.

The Court said if the Counsel called upon the Court to compel an answer, he would consider. He had no doubt she was bound to answer any question which would not subject her to a criminal prosecution.

Q—By what name or designation was Mr. Forrest known!

A.—He came and saw no one but myself: it was two or three times after he came before I knew who he was: he generally met the servant: he did not mention his name: supposed! knew it. as everybody knew him; there was a person other than myself who attended to letting persons in at the door; not always the same person; I went to the door often myself, and at other times an Irish girl, a chambermaid, her name is Ellen; she is not in the City. I have not seen her since I discharged her; she did not know Mr. Forrest; after the first time Mr. F. came no one attenden to him, he walked into the parlor himself; seen her since I discharged her, she did not know Mr. Forrest; after the first time Mr. F. came no one attenden to him, he walked into the parlor himself; there was a lady busy with me, who was a relative; her name was Calista Russell; she was sometimes called Sarah and sometimes Josephine; she lives in Laurens st. now; she is in trouble, her husband is lying a corpse. I had a servant named Rachael Kinsela; she is the cook, and knows nothing about the house; Mr. F. has called on me in Houstons the house, Mr. F. has called on the in Houstons the house in Greenwich at, Mr. F. always occupied the same way and carried on the same business as at the house in Greenwich st., Mr. F. always occupied the same room an Greenwich st.; he weat in and out as if it was his own; no one waited on him; he had the same location of rooms in Houston-st, we had a long chamber there, three small ones and a bathroom; sometimes the chambermaid would let Mr. F. m. we had a girl cailed Ellen, and a colored girl called Jenny, but they did not know Mr. F. I have heard him come down in Houston st., but did not hear him go up. I don't remember his staying all night, he would come when in town once or twice a month; i never saw or heard any one come with him; I never saw him with any other persons at my house; that may appear strange to you but it is the truth.

A.—I told you I never saw any one with him; he came by himself and would go into the parlor. I could not know of any business he had in going into the room or staying in it.

Q.—Did Mr. F. ever pay you any money for the use of your rooms.

A.—Yes. I cannot tell how often, nor if he paid every time. I kept no account, but left it to his own memory. I kept a boarding-house, as I told you before.

fore.

By Mr. Van Buren—I have not been spoken to by Mrs. Forrest, I never saw Mrs. Forrest, nor any one in her behalf.

Q—Do you Know Mr. Willis?

A—I do not, nor Mr. Wikoff, or Capt. Caleraft; no representations have been made to me by them or I would not be sitting here.

Mr. O'C. asked for an attachment as to Thomas S. Hannelle, a miless?

Hamblin, a witness.

Theodore Sedguck, Jr., re-called—Is a counselloral-law; was attorney-at-law for Mr. Forrest in 1849, and for some time before. I was originally employed by Mr. Forrest in the suit at Pennsylvania; I was Forrest and Miss Chitton in a boat in North River, cannot say the time, it was seven or eight years ago, a might boat; cannot say positively whether to or from Albany, or what boat; saw Mr. Forrest and Miss C. side by side, walking in the saloon, first on the lower deck, then on the upper deck; saw them by a state-room door, did not see either of them go in, do not recollect having mensioned to any one who the parties were, do not recollect whether or not, Mr. Freeman was on board that time.

Q. by Mr. O'Conor—Did the wirness at any time state persons to be Mr. F. and Miss C. when such was not the fact. Objected to and ruled out "a stooloose."

By Mr. Van Buren—I have stated what I knew on the subject to several persons in town—to Mr. A. Stevens, Mr. Seaman, Mr. Cornelins Bogardus, and one or two more. I am not acquainted with Mrs. Forrest; I am with her counsel; I have stated to attend by a Mr. Martin. I don't know his other name, believe he is a lawyer. The Chief Justice intimated that the time was wasted.

Caroline Ingersult called by O'Connor and sworn—I now reside at No. 4 Murray-st.: I have hived in the City four or five years, about four years, when I first came here I resided at No. 355 Greenwich-st.: I really fergot the number but think that's it. I lived there about a year and a half; I moved in the fall; in September I think. I left the house on a list of May: the 2d first of May effect the number but think that's it. I lived in September I think. I left the house on a list of May: the 2d first of May effect the number but think that's it. I lived in May: the 2d first of May effect the properties of Mrs. O'C., stating Forrest in the suit at Portset in the suit at Portset in the suit.

A—10o you know Mr. Forrest, the defendant in this suit.

A—10o you know Mr. Forrest, the defendant in this suit. I am mistaken I knew him when I lived in the contrary. (Objected to). Never saw Mrs Forrest in ergard to the matter. a letter of Mr. O'C. to and asks him to make the rendezvous in his library.

Witness—Have no doubt the interview was Dec. 29: remember Mr. F. was to employ an agent to attend the Pennsylvania Legislature to see that the agreement as to Mrs. F. was not deviated from ; have no recollection of sending to Mr. O'C. a paper with the word "criminal" struck out, my impressions are to the contrary. (Objected to.) Never saw Mrs. Forcest in regard to the matter: a letter of Mr. O'C. to Mr. S. says Mrs. F. is willing to acquiesce in anything not inconsistent with the idea of her entire innocence: refuses to accede to his wish relative to petition to Legislature; the proposition had been understood that the proceedings at Pennsylvania should not be made public. I endeavored to effect an amicable arrangement, but the whole failed.

By Mr. Van B.—I had communicated with Mr. Bryant and Mr. Ogden, of Chicago, in behalf of Mrs. F.; I called on Mr. Bryant as a mutual friend of the parties.

By 3ir. Van B.—I had communicated with Mr. Br. It called on Mr. Bryant as a mutual friend of the parties.

Q.—To what point had the negotiation advanced 1 Objected to by Mr. O'C.

Mr. Van B. said there had never been anything said or thought of till Mr. O'C. came into the case, but that the divorce was to be obtained from the Pennsylvania Legislature en the ground of impropriety of Mrs. F. the only matter of difference was as to the amount of allowance.

Mr. O'C. contended that a negotiation by Mr. Ogden and Mr. Bryant, on behalf of Mrs. Forrest, could not be given in evidence, unless it is first shown that Mrs F authorized it.

The Court coincided in the view, and thought that the whole testimony in regard to a negotiation as to a coliusive bargain between Mr. Forrest and his wife to obtain a divorce, the law recognizing or permitting no secret understanding of the kind.

Witness—I acted for Mr. Forrest in the matter generally as his counsel, had no specific mistructions, he employed Mr. Randall, of Pennsylvania, and myself. I was extremely anxious to have the matter settled in an amicable manner, and if any thing was done as the Judge suggested I was to blame. Mr. F. wished to have the divorce obtained in a legal way, he desired to go immediately to the Couris on affirmative charges; Mr. F. ratified from day to day, as we met, all I did on the subject. in regard to the negotiation with Mr. O'Conor it was whether if Mr. F. made an application to the Legislature of Pennsylfania, as had been contemplated, whether she would be silent upon it. I do not know that Mr. P. gave any instructions as to how the charges should be framed, whether in mild terms or not, the application was to be on the basis of impropriety of Mrs. F. but an effort was made not to have the matter published or have the particulars known to the members of the Legislature, except the Committee and those members who especially desired to look at the papers.

Mrs. Ingersoli, recalled—Took possession of house No. 355 Greenwich st. Nov. 5, 1846, lef
